BEGINNING OUR YEAR

With this pertinent message, the LIBRARIAN takes pleasure in introducing to you the new A.S.L.A. president, Mrs. Gertrude Burt, Librarian, Carnegie Free Library, Tucson, Arizona. Mrs. Burt succeeds Mr. Jackson Carty who resigned from the Association during the summer to accept a position in California.

For our Association a new year has begun — a new year in which many new aims cannot be included until we have fulfilled the Association's primary aim — the activation of the State Library Extension Service.

I have a feeling of deep gratitude to those who have worked so earnestly and have accomplished so much toward reaching our goal.

We should feel hopeful rather than discouraged as each year new influences and stronger unity can be felt in our working toward the success of this, our primary concern.

It is my plea that each and every member of our wider and more actively participating membership talk to his legislators and candidates for the legislature, urging their support for an appropriation to activate library extension. Friends of libraries, individuals or groups, should be urged to expend their efforts in this direction, also. The voice of the people we serve often speaks the loudest. The Tucson chapter of Friends of Arizona Libraries is of much help to us.

Frank Kindon in his biography of John Cotton Dana wrote, "The question once was, 'What can the library be?' Today it is, 'What can the library do?' Formerly it was a question of resources, of number of books, of wealth of material. Now it is a question of effectiveness, of vitality, of influence on community."

Fortunate is the library that has a wealth of resources and materials, but no library is too small to help in promoting a vigorous program for the improvement and furtherance of library service.

Very sincerely I wish you all every success always.

LET'S DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS

by

MARGUERITE PASQUALE, LIBRARIAN
TUCSON SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Not too long ago, I chanced across a letter written to a director of a library school pleading for a librarian to fill a vacancy. But to no avail — there were no applicants, since the positions available far exceeded the number of librarians to fill them!

There has always been a crying need for qualified, trained librarians, but the need today seems greater than ever before. Perhaps many factors have contributed to this situation. The low salaries so often paid and the little security offered in the way of pensions and retirement often discourage people, as do the five long years of training required for public librarians. In the case of a school librarian, in addition to library training, education courses are required in order to qualify for a teaching certificate. Also the undefined areas of duties sometimes become a dissenting factor. Just where does the duty of the professional librarian end, and that of a clerk begin. Too often I'm afraid, librarians end up becoming "glorified" clerks (and are paid accordingly!). Furthermore, the irregular working schedule required of public librarians, working split shifts, working evenings, and some places, working on Sundays, may be another cause for irritation.

Yet, in spite of all this, those of us in the profession, be it public or school library work, know there are many rewards in our work (even tho' they be not monetary). The realization of the importance of the printed word, in spite of the impact of radio, movies, and television, the gratification of readers in rural areas who are served through the medium of a bookmobile, the joy of a youngster in returning a book, his eyes all aglow and saying, "Boy, was this a good book — got another like it?", or the thrill of holding a group of children spellbound during a story hour, all warm the librarian's heart and make her feel that perhaps her job is not a thankless one after all. The knowledge that librarians play an effective part in adult education and their responsibility to the community in furnishing impartial and truthful information for their readers, too, is an important service.

One could go on enumerating the many gratifications of the library profession. However, at the present time we are faced with the task of how to convince the youth who are endowed with a burning desire to serve their community, to enter the profession.

What means can we use for recruiting personnel? Besides talking personally to individuals you feel may have the necessary qualifications for library work and who may be interested, leaflets may be acquired (some published by ALA) and distributed at strategic places, as in the public libraries themselves. Also in high schools where career conferences are held, making sure that a section on library work is scheduled, or asking high school counselors to be on the look-out for potential librarians are other means of reaching people. Even your own enthusiasm about your work will be a good "convincer," but whatever you do, won't you make it your business to do some recruiting? We need librarians, both public and school. Remember tho', we want librarians who will be a credit to the profession.

NEWS AROUND THE STATE

Roosevelt School Libraries, Phoenix . . .

Mrs. FERN FAUCETT resigned her position as librarian at the Mesa Public Library to assume the duties of librarian at the Third Street School. She succeeds Mrs. BARBARA GREER who has accepted a classroom teaching position in the same school. Mrs. MADELINE MASON, librarian at Percy L. Julian School, flew to her former home in Indianapolis, Indiana, where she visited with friends and relatives. The libraries of the three Roosevelt schools were open to the public three mornings a week during the summer. Librarians in charge were Mesdames NOLA BELFORD, GREER and MASON.

Tempe Public Library, Tempe . . .

The Tempe Public Library has recataloged its fiction and children's books. The major part of this project was volunteer work by Mrs. R. K. WYLLYS, Miss MARIETTA WYLLYS and MRS. ROBERT CHARMAN. Catalog cards for all junior books are now in a separate file housed in a card catalog cabinet purchased from funds allowed by the City Council. This was badly needed and is greatly appreciated. A new room is being added to the present library and will be used for the juniors. The present children's room will become the periodical and general reference room, and will permit expansion in the non-fiction section. Mrs. KEMPER GOODWIN was elected chairman of the Library Board at the September meeting. In July, Mrs. BERTHA CORNELL, assistant librarian, underwent surgery, but is back on the job and feeling fine. Mrs. ELIZABETH R. BOWEN, librarian, takes her vacation this month and plans to visit in Ohio.

University of Arizona Library, Tucson . . .

There have been numerous changes on the University library staff in recent months. FLEMING BENNETT, formerly head of acquisitions at Columbia University, is now librarian. Mr. Bennett has his BSLS from Western Reserve and is a candidate for PhD from the Graduate Library School of Chicago University. New catalogers are FLORENCE EMERT, from the Dayton, Ohio, Public Library, and EUGENE FROSIO. Both hold master's degrees in library science. Mrs. BETH CARL is an assistant in the Catalog Department. Now librarian in the Reserve Book Room is Mrs. VIRGINIA L. BROWN. Mrs. MAYE KEITH, former Business Manager of the ARIZONA LIBRARIAN, resigned the position of Documents Librarian and her place was taken by JOHN THAYER, who was previously a cataloger. Other resignations during the summer were those of Mrs. CAROLYN HAYTHORNEWHITE, Mrs. PATRICIA KARMAN, Mrs. ANNE CAMERON, and Mrs. JANE KNIPE. Miss DOROTHY SIEBECKER, Head, Catalog Department, attended the ALA annual convention in New York. She is a council member of the Cataloging and Classification Division. Mr. DONALD POWELL, Head, Reference Department, visited in Stillwater, Oklahoma, with Mr. Edmon Low, President of the Southwestern Library Association, on his return from a vacation in the east.

Madison School Libraries, Phoenix . . .

RUTH E. MAHONEY is the new librarian at Madison No. 2. She has her B.A. and M.A. from Drake University and also has twenty hours of Library Science from A.S.C. Miss Mahoney was a high school librarian and has organized a high school library as well as a county library for rural schools. She is still a member of the Iowa State Library Association and was chairman of the School Librarians' of the Iowa State Teachers' Association for 1948-49. An extended vacation this past summer took Mrs. FRANCES CREIGHTON to the northeastern United States and Canada where she visited many libraries and museums. She was the guest of ELOISE RUE at a meeting of Michigan librarians, and reports that Mrs. Rue wishes to be remembered to her Arizona friends. We are proud to announce that Mrs. Creighton has been elected to the Board of Directors of the American Association of School Librarians as representative of Region Four.

New additions to the library staff include Mrs. RUBY JORDAN, librarian at Monroe School; Mrs. GLADYS YUHAS and Mrs. MAY YEE, library clerks at the Administration Building. Miss ELINOR YUNGMEYER, librarian at Whittier School, has been appointed one of a committee representing the American Association of School Librarians on the Newbery-Caldecott Award Committee. On June 13th, Miss MARY BETH HUNT married Mr. Howard Wiley of Phoenix. They honeymooned in northern Arizona, and now reside at 540 East Rose Lane.

Carnegie Free Library, Tucson . . .

As a further service to the public, the library is now open on Sunday from 1-5 p.m., giving complete service in all departments. On the more personal side was the marriage of LELA BURNS, Head Cataloger, to Phil Jenewein, on June 12th. Mrs. CARMELITA ROSS, an assistant in the catalog department, resigned in March in favor of Jeffrey Ross whose arrival was announced in April. Mrs. SUSIE GONDEK joined the catalog department July 1st. She was formerly connected with the Indianapolis Public Library and the Aurora, Illinois, Public Schools. BEATRICE ROSS, who resigned to join the Women's Air Force, was replaced by Mrs. MAYBELLE WOOD. Miss CATHERINE ROMERO, formerly a page in the circulation department, is now working in the county and mending divisions. GRACE HEIDEMAN now has a full time position in the circulation department, after working part time for several months. The vacancy left by the resignation of DIANA BOYLE was filled by Mrs. LOUISE ANTHONY, who was formerly with Teachers College, Columbia University. Part time loan desk assistants are REGINA SCHAEFFER, DOROTHY BUSBY, and LILLIAN DE RUITER, the latter having returned from a short leave of absence. Former librarian at Decatur, Indiana, ESTHER EICHENBERGER, is now assistant reference librarian. BETTY LAUTNER is now a full time assistant in the Children's Department. Mrs. GERTRUDE BURT, librarian, and Mrs. EDITH KIRBY, assistant, plan to attend the California State Library Association meeting in October. TRUDE KUEHL, reference librarian, has returned to work after an absence due to injuries received as a result of being thrown from a horse while vacationing.

Glendale Union High Library, Glendale . . .

Mrs. HELEN DITSEN LLOYD (not to be confused with Miss Helen Lloyd, librarian at Glendale Grammar School) is now assistant librarian. She comes from Oklahoma City, and her husband, James, is a student at the American Institute for Foreign Trade. We are told they are very happy to have her as she is a charming person. Mrs. MARGARET McGOWAN, librarian, went to Canada and Alaska this summer and had a grand trip. She is a grandmother again; a little red haired girl this time.

Wickenburg Public Library, Wickenburg . . .

Approximately two hundred books were donated to the library during the summer months. KATE BURDEN PEARSON, librarian, took her vacation the latter part of July, at which time Mrs. HAZEL PERKINS substituted for her. Boxes of duplicate books

Miss DOROTHY BURGE reports that she spent two months touring England and Europe during the summer, and had an opportunity to see the British Museum Library, the Library of the Sorbonne and a public library in London.

Phoenix College Library, Phoenix . . .

Mrs. BERNICE TREVILLIAN took off for California as soon as school closed and didn't return until she heard the school bell clanging. With her sister, she drove up the coast to Victoria and Vancouver, where they took several boat trips and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Mrs. WILMA HEISER took a "busman's holiday" and worked two months as a reference librarian at the City Library. Her last month of vacation was spent in Los Angeles. BARBARA SMITH spent a profitable summer studying library science for one session at Tempe. Then she relaxed with a pleasant motor trip to San Francisco. In June, PHYLLIS BAYLEY directed her first play at the Phoenix Little Theater. The

ARIZONA LIBRARY DIRECTORY

Compiled by

ELINOR YUNGMEYER AND JOHN THAYER

THIS DIRECTORY, like its predecessors, is divided into a geographic section and an alphabetical listing. Of the libraries listed two years ago, thirty-two are missing from this list. However, sixty-four libraries not previously cited are included. The reader will note that there is also an increase in the number of individual librarians reporting. The attempt was made to contact all libraries in the state. If any of the missing libraries will forward the necessary information to the Editors, we will be pleased to print a supplement in the near future.

never before
COMFORTABLE
as this!

Slide your armchair right under this new LB table. Cross your knees. Study in comfort. You have three full inches more room below than you've ever had before — yet the table surface is 29" from the floor instead of 30". The apron is gone, eliminated by LB's exclusive method of fastening table top to legs.

Library Bureau, which has pioneered so many improvements now in use by leading libraries, is proud to present this answer to the modern library's need for reading ease, beauty and long, maintenance-free service. Available in rectangular models, 5', 7½', and 10' long, and a round model 48" in diameter, these tables are exclusive with Library Bureau.

For full information write or phone Remington Rand Inc., 128 S. Central Avenue, Phoenix, Ariz.; or, 711 S. Olive Street, Los Angeles 14, Calif.

New "Apronless" table provides ideal 29" height for easier reading — with more room below as well*
